ABOUT US

Parents asked which schools allow plaiting.

So we went through every school profile on OpenClass and pulled out each school's hair rule. Where a profile only says plaiting is allowed, we say so, and point you to the school for the details.

OpenClass began with a simple frustration: up-to-date information on Zimbabwe's schools was almost impossible to find.

Many schools have no website, and those that do rarely keep them current, so parents relied on word of mouth for one of the biggest decisions they make. We built OpenClass as a school directory that is researched continuously and crowdsourced from parents.

Today it is one of Zimbabwe's most comprehensive education resources: school profiles with parent reviews, eMAP application help, tutors, classifieds, intakes and 30+ free eBooks like this one.

How this eBook works

22 schools that allow girls to plait their hair, listed A to Z with each school's rule.

Most Zimbabwean schools still ask girls to keep their hair short, but a growing number now allow plaits, braids or twists. The rules differ a lot: some allow braids up to 30 cm, some only freehand styles, and some only at A-Level. Each card shows the school's rule as its profile states it. Rules change, so confirm with the school before you buy extensions.

1. Browse
   Schools are listed alphabetically. Each card gives you the essentials at a glance: location, church or government, fees and pass rates.

2. Shortlist
   Use the contents page to compare fees side by side and jump straight to any school.

3. Go deeper
   Tap any card to open that school's full profile on openclass.co.zw.
